STUDY GUIDE | SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

FRIEND

THE POINTS FROM THIS MESSAGE WERE:

- The nature of true friendship.
 - sacrificial faithfulness
 - vulnerable openness
- The context for true friendship.
- The One True Friend.

LET'S TALK

1. What impacted you the most from this week's message?
2. Pastor Steve says, "To say that we've been living in uncertain times lately, is to state the obvious, isn't it?" What uncertainties are you facing right now?
3. True friendship is made up of sacrificial faithfulness and vulnerable openness. Have you experienced true friendship yourself? Talk a little bit about that friendship. How did it impact you?
4. What are some of the ways, good and bad, that technology has affected your relationships?
5. Pastor Steve says, "True friendships are forged when people share in a cause, a purpose, a mission that is greater than themselves." That's why at Cornerstone, we encourage small groups to serve together at least twice a year. Biblical community doesn't exist for itself – it exists for the sake of others.

What are some ways your small group can serve together? Check out some Small Group Serving Ideas to get you started. Plan to serve together within the next few months.

6. Just like with any friendship, growing in our friendship with Jesus, our one True Friend will require time and intentionality. What is one thing you can do this week to grow in your friendship with Jesus?

LET'S PRAY

Spend some time in prayer (for each other, for our community and for the world).
