Draw-it! What does your tree look like?

Charlie Brown's tree

Where does biblical JOY come from?

Where does it not come from?

Think-about-it!

Contrast is a word we hear in art sometimes or maybe when you adjust the settings on the TV. Light and dark are contrasts - another way to think about it is opposites. But contrasting is MORE than opposites, it's when we see the differences because we are comparing opposite things!

Two contrasts Luke (dude who wrote LUKE) makes:

1. Between _____ and Jesus
2. Between Augustus and the _____

What did Jesus come to do?

How did Augustus flex?

How did Pastor Jeremy flex?

Briefly explain which contrast you will remember next time you read the Christmas story:

Colour it!
