Title: _____

1. In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as they saw fit.

2. God provides an impressive king for the Israelites: King Saul. He was strong and smart like a soldier.

3. However, Saul is not fully formed in God and thus has a divided heart, and obeys God only halfway.

4. God finds a new king to replace Saul, his name was David. David was a shepherd boy and a man after God's own heart.

5. King David's desire has become one with God's desire. David wants to build a house for God, but God declares that he will build a house for David.

6. David's son Solomon carries on this task during his reign as king and builds a Temple in Jerusalem.

7. King Solomon's heart is divided between God's desire and his own desires. God's hand of blessing is removed and the kingdom of Israel falls apart.

8. Evil and ego take over the land of Israel. Israel had been called to change the world, but ultimately, they weren't prepared to change themselves.
