Title: _____

1. After Jesus was baptized he was led by the Spirit into the wilderness. For forty days Jesus was here and fasted. During this time the devil tried to tempt Jesus.

2. First, the devil tempted Jesus to turn stone into bread so Jesus could have something to eat.

3. Jesus answered, "It is written: 'Man shall not live on bread alone.'" He did not do it.

4. Then the devil led Jesus to a high place and told Jesus he could have power over all the kingdoms of the world.

5. Jesus said no, Jesus will not sacrifice who He is for a moment.

6. The devil tempts Jesus one more time by asking Him to prove He is the Son of God, King of Kings.

7. Jesus replied: "Do not put the Lord your God to the test" and did not do it.

8. Jesus is the King and he does not need to prove that he is. Earthly kingdoms are built through conquest and power, Jesus grows His Kingdom through family and community.
