The church at Antioch is the first church with believers from different countries, just like our church. Look around you, circle the picture if you see someone who looks like them sitting around you.

Bible-Truths-Quiz!

1. True or False: God officially changed Saul's name to Paul when he became a Christian.

A) True! God gave him a brand new name.

B) False! Saul and Paul are the same person; he just used his Greek name (Paul) and his Hebrew name (Saul).

2. Why did Paul have two names?

A) Because he forgot his first name.

B) He used "Saul" with his Jewish friends and "Paul" when traveling in Greek-speaking areas.

C) He changed it so nobody would find him.

3. What is a "false prophet"?

A) Someone who tells the future using a crystal ball.

B) Someone who teaches people how to read the Bible.

C) Someone who tells lies or false things but claims the message came straight from God.

Answers: 1. B | 2. B | 3. C

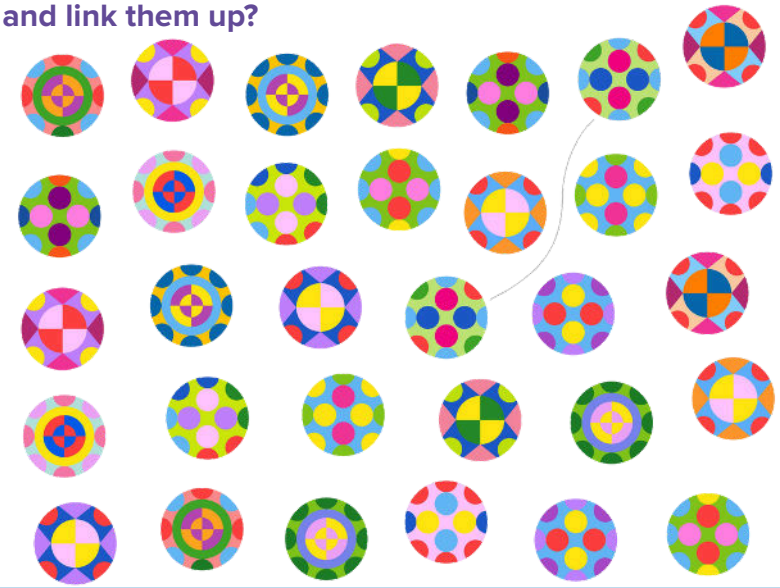
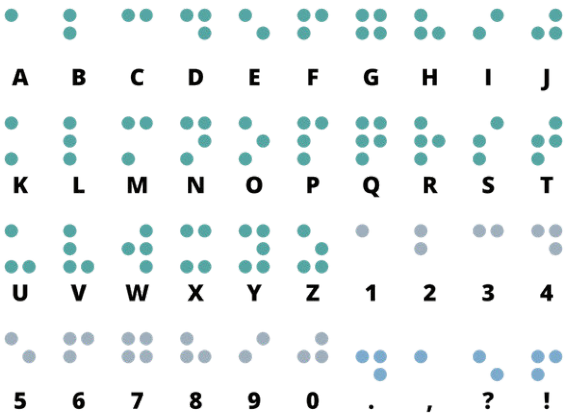
Paul and Barnabas were sent off as a pair to tell people about God. God sends people TOGETHER. Can you find the matching balls and link them up?



Decode-It!

Elymas was a false prophet and he tried to stop the governor from believing in Jesus. So God made him blind for a while. Blind people have to read braille instead of letters.

BRAILLE ALPHABET



Write your name in Braille.

Write the missing word in braille:

When the governor saw what had happened, he ⠠⠓⠑ , for he was ⠠⠃⠑⠇⠊⠑⠧⠑⠙ at the teaching about the ⠠⠇⠕⠗⠙ . (Acts 13:12)

word bank: believed, amazed, Lord

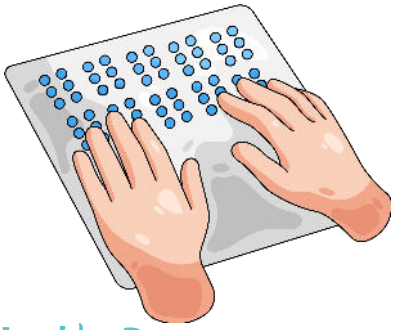
At the church of Antioch, the people were worshipping, fasting and listening. Help the cat find the bird by listening quietly.



Let's Pray

Dear Jesus, I pray for those who need to hear about you to know you, and be amazed. Amen!
